RE: Legal Opinion Regarding Lobbyist Registration

Date: August 18, 2016

You requested an opinion on whether an architect of record is required to register as a lobbyist prior to appearing before the Historic Preservation Board (HPB). The answer is no.

Under Sec. 2-11.1(s)(1)(b) of the Miami-Dade County Ethics Code, “the term ‘Lobbyist’ specifically excludes the following persons: attorneys or other representatives retained or employed solely for the purpose of representing individuals, corporations or other entities during publicly noticed quasi-judicial proceedings where the law prohibits ex-parte communications; expert witnesses who provide only scientific, technical or other specialized information or testimony in public meetings.” The HPB is a quasi-judicial board therefore an architect representing an applicant before this board falls under this exception. Also, an architect is an expert witness who is providing technical and specialized information to the HPB.

In INQ 13-84, the Miami-Dade Ethics Commission opined that, “an architect is not required to register as a lobbyist as long as his appearances on behalf of his client are limited to quasi-judicial hearings.”

Furthermore, pursuant to Sec. 2-243(c)(3) of the City of Coral Gables Code, “any person requested to appear before the city commission, city board, committee, or any member thereof, or the city manager or city staff in a quasi-judicial proceeding or any agent, attorney, officer or employee or such person.” It is reasonable to conclude that an architect is a “person requested to appear” before the HPB as he/she is most qualified to present the project design and discuss its historic elements and its conformance with the code.

This opinion is issued pursuant to Secs. 2-201(e)(1) and (8) and Sec. 2-237 of the City Code (as amended in CAO 2016-045) granting the City Attorney’s Office the authority to issue opinions and interpretation on behalf of the City.

Subject: Opinion regarding lobbyist registration

Dear Walter,

Please disregard the prior email on this issue. You requested an opinion on whether an architect of record is required to register as a lobbyist prior to appearing before the Historic Preservation Board (HPB). The answer is no.

Under Sec. 2-11.1(s)(1)(b) of the Miami-Dade County Ethics Code, "the term 'Lobbyist' specifically excludes the following persons: attorneys or other representatives retained or employed solely for the purpose of representing individuals, corporations or other entities during publicly noticed quasi-judicial proceedings where the law prohibits ex-parte communications; expert witnesses who provide only scientific, technical or other specialized information or testimony in public meetings." The HPB is a quasi-judicial board therefore an architect representing an applicant before this board falls under this exception. Also, an architect is an expert witness who is providing technical and specialized information to the HPB.

In INQ 13-84, the Miami-Dade Ethics Commission opined that, "an architect is not required to register as a lobbyist as long as his appearances on behalf of his client are limited to quasi-judicial hearings." (Full opinion available at: http://ethics.miamidade.gov/library/inquiry2013/inq_13-84_miller.pdf)

Furthermore, pursuant to Sec. 2-243(c)(3) of the City of Coral Gables Code, “any person requested to appear before the city commission, city board, committee, or any member thereof, or the city manager or city staff in a quasi-judicial proceeding or any agent, attorney, officer or employee or such person.” It is reasonable to conclude that an architect is a “person requested to appear” before the HPB as he/she is most qualified to present the project design and discuss its historic elements and its conformance with the code.

This opinion is issued pursuant to Secs. 2-201(e)(1) and (8) and Sec. 2-237 of the City Code (as amended in CAO 2016-045) granting the City Attorney’s Office the authority to issue opinions and interpretation on behalf of the City.
